

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE TWENTIETH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR LEE COUNTY, FLORIDA

VICTIM JUSTICE, P.C., JOHN CLUNE, and MAGER PARUAS, LLC (as Successor to Michael Dolce and Dolce Law, P.A.),

CASE NO. 13-CA-003181

Plaintiffs,

vs.

DEANNA WILLIAMS,

Defendant.

ORDER ON PLAINTIFF MAGER PARUAS, LLC'S
SECOND MOTION FOR CONTEMPT

THIS CAUSE having come before me upon Plaintiff MAGER PARUAS, LLC'S Second Motion for Contempt, having heard argument of counsel, after reviewing the Court file and hearing argument from both sides and being otherwise fully apprised in the premises, it is hereby

ADJUDGED that said Motion is hereby GRANTED as follows:

The Court made specific and extensive findings at the hearing regarding Deanna Williams contemptuous behavior and finds she has knowingly and willfully disregarded court orders, including two separate Final Judgments entered November 20, 2017 and another Court Order of May 3, 2018 requiring compliance with the furnishing of complete Form 1.977s. Defendant has previously defied other court orders and has been sanctioned in the past. Consistent with the law provided by Plaintiff Mager Paruas, LLC and the law and record available to this Court, the Court finds Deanna Williams in contempt, awards attorney's fees and costs to Plaintiff Mager Paruas, LLC, and directs that if the Form 1.977 is not fully completed within 10 days of the date of this Order, and/or if Defendant Deanna Williams does not sit for her deposition within 20 days thereafter, a Writ of Bodily Attachment will issue to arrest Defendant Deanna Williams, and she shall remain incarcerated until she fully completes Form 1.977 for each Judgment, and agrees to sit for her deposition within the stated time. The Court also awards attorney's fees and costs to Plaintiff Mager Paruas, LLC, with amounts being determined by hearing set as soon as practicable.

ORDERED in Chambers at Fort Myers, Florida this 7th day of March 2019.
